THE CIRCULATION OF THE VIRGINIAN IS LARGELY IN EXCESS of any other paper published in Eastern Virginia.
Its circulation in Norfolk and Portsmouth is greater than that of any paper published or circulated in the two cities. It is delivered in the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth and suburbs for 10 cents a week. Mail subscriptions, postage paid, five dollars per year; Three Dollars for six months; One Dollar and Fifty Cents for three months; and Fifty Cents for one month.
Advertisements inserted at the rate of 75 CENTS A SQUARE FIRST INSERTION; each subsequent insertion 37 1/2 CENTS; or 50 CENTS WHEN INSERTED EVERY OTHER DAY. Contractors are not allowed to exceed their space or advertise other than their legitimate business, except by paying specially for the same.
TRY WEEKLY VIRGINIAN AND CAROLINIAN, eight pages, is delivered, postage paid, three months, 25c.; six months, 50c.; twelve months, $1.

A Washington correspondent calls attention to the fact that there is no provision in the United States statutes for the resignation of a President. It was doubtless deemed unnecessary, as it certainly is. They sometimes die in this country, but never resign.—Exchange.

Mrs. Susan P. Lee, of Lexington, Va., has prepared a school history of the United States which will soon make its appearance. Mrs. Lee is the eldest daughter of the late Gen. William N. Pendleton, who was chaplain on Gen. Lee's staff, and also chief of ordinance of the Army of Northern Virginia.

"Out in Oregon," said a man from that State, "the air is so clear that you can see the peak of Mount Shasta, in California, from the peak of Mount Hood, in Oregon, a distance of 276 miles." "Here in the East we can see much farther than that." "Oh, come now." "It's a fact. The moon is 240,000 miles away, but we can see it on a clear night."—Life.

There were glaring and annoying typographical errors in The VIRGINIAN editorial of yesterday on the liquor ordinance. In the twelfth line of the second paragraph the words "change of amendment" should read "class of amusement." In the fifth line of the fifth paragraph "even proper dancing" should read "improper dancing," and the closing word of the fifth paragraph should read "prohibited" instead of "permitted." These errors changed the meaning and the sense of the article.

THE SOUTHERN MAGAZINE.

The January number of this excellent publication is to hand and is altogether interesting. It is handsomely illustrated, well edited and is a true representative of the best Southern life and sentiment. It is published in Louisville, Ky., and is a credit to its name and purpose.

"BALLOTS VS. BULLETS."

Senator-elect Tillman, of South Carolina, in giving his views in a letter of recent date to an Iowa editor on the political situation, strongly urges the people of the South and West to quit voting the Democratic and Republican tickets. He urges these people to abandon the old parties and to form a new national party, and goes so far as to say that "unless we have a speedy change for the better that bullets instead of ballots will be utilized in the interest of reform."

The Tillmanites of South Carolina have done many things since they have been in power which has amazed the country, but it must be confessed that the country has not been prepared for anything of this kind. The fact is, a new party is not needed, and it may be stated with emphasis that the time is not yet when another can succeed as a national organization. Certainly the Democratic party is here to stay. It has survived all its competitors and so will it on to the end. Mr. Tillman's opinion to the contrary notwithstanding.

But is it not a little out of place for a Senator-elect to the Senate of this great country, to even suggest that bullets may be the final resort to bring about what he terms reform? Mr. Tillman has played many parts since his advent upon the political stage, and as bad as some of them have been this latter role is the most extraordinary of them all.

LIVE AT HOME.

Mr. Armour, the great pork packer of the West, says that the South is worth two Europes to him. If this be true it is quite evident that the South is paying out far too much money for food to other sections that might as well be raised at home. Some of our contemporaries say that the South must be paying the West at least $140,000,000 a year for food, and it is said that in Memphis alone $16,000,000 a year is paid for food and fodder from the West. Now what is the remedy?

Let the farmers of the South quit raising one crop alone—raise more hogs, cattle, corn, wheat, oats, and hay, and the evil is already remedied. The South has the most productive country in the world, and a diversity of farm products is not only not difficult, but easy. Why should the South be dependent upon the West for its pork, flour and other food necessities when the same can be raised right here at little cost? This is a lesson which the South must learn, and the sooner the better.

THE NEXT SENATE.

The New York World has been doing some calculating regarding the complexion of the next Senate. It is shown that on the 4th of March next the terms of thirty-two Senators will expire. Of these fifteen are Democrats and seventeen Republicans. Seventeen new men have been elected to the Senate and the World announces them as follows:

"Bacon, Democrat, of Georgia, who succeeds Walsh, Democrat; Gear, Republican, of Iowa, who succeeds Wilson, Republican; Burrows, Republican, of Michigan, who succeeds Patton, Republican; Wallthall, Democrat, of Mississippi, who succeeds McLaurin, Democrat; Maule, Republican, of Montana, who succeeds Power, Republican and Carter, Republican, elected to fill the vacancy; Thurston, Republican, of Nebraska, who succeeds Manderson, Republican; Sewell, Republican, of New Jersey, who succeeds McPherson, Democrat; Butler, Populist, of North Carolina, who succeeds Ransom, Democrat, and Pritchard, Republican, who succeeds Jarvis, Democrat; Wetmore, Republican, of Rhode Island, who succeeds Dixon, Republican; Tillman, Democrat, of South Carolina, who succeeds Butler, Democrat; Chilton, Democrat, of Texas, who succeeds Ooke, Democrat; Martin, Democrat, of Virginia, who succeeds Hutton, Democrat; Elkins, Republican, of West Virginia, who succeeds Camden, Democrat; Warren, Republican, of Wyoming, who succeeds Carey, Republican, and Clark, Republican, of Wyoming, to fill the vacancy.

Of these eleven are Republicans, five are Democrats and one is a Populist. If this enumeration be correct, as the Memphis Avalanche remarks, then the next Senate will be forty-three Republicans, thirty Democrats and six Populists. It is believed that all the Populists will vote with the Republicans in the organization of the Senate, which party will undoubtedly do the organizing to suit itself.

THEY SHOULD BE SUPPRESSED.

For years THE VIRGINIAN has called attention to the disgrace attached to our city and its government because of the establishment and brazen indifference of the houses of ill-repute, and the dives and dens which crowd the vicinity of Norfolk's Temple of Justice and the Police station. It has again and again urged their suppression. There is no good reason why these sinks of iniquity should not be broken up. The thoroughfares they infest, were once short avenues for the good people of the city to their houses of worship or to the business portion of the city. This should be the case again. The people demand a breaking up of the vile resorts which are so grievous a blemish to Norfolk's good name. They should go, and the sooner the better. Upon the Mayor rests the responsibility of their suppression. Let him do his duty.

CONGRATULATORY LETTERS.

The Benefit of The Virginian's Great Exhibits to Norfolk.

Editor of the Virginian:

NORFOLK, VA., January 29, 1895.

DEAR SIR:—I wrote you from Boston last November. Your recent (January 1) exposition of Norfolk's prosperity and prospects was so encouraging that I determined to make this city my permanent home and invest in some congenial enterprise. I am agreeably surprised to find Norfolk developing so rapidly into a new Norfolk, and during the two weeks I have been here I have sent several batches of your great trade review where I think they will do the most good. A million copies ought to be distributed through the North and West. In fact, the enterprise would pay a thousand per cent. on the investment if the public-spirited men of the city should charter a car from the Norfolk and Western, paint on its sides a few striking facts about Norfolk's great prosperity, load it with VIRGINIANS (January 1 edition) and with samples of the products of Tidewater Virginia and send it out through the country. I do not believe in booming, but I do believe in advertising—and plenty of it.

Very respectfully,
THOMAS SHERMAN EARL.

Letter From Gen. Fitz Lee.

GLASGOW, VA., January 26, 1895.

My Dear Mr. Glennan:

On my return from Atlanta two or three days ago I found a copy of THE VIRGINIAN of 1st of January. I congratulate you on the enterprise and spirit which prompted your work, as well as the wonderful display of your city's past and future career. I have always had great confidence in the almost limitless resources of Norfolk. Its geographical position, railroad and shipping facilities are unsurpassed and its growth and prosperity must increase year by year.

Very sincerely,
FITZ LEE.

Letter From Hon. J. H. H. Figgat.

FINCASLE, VA., January 26, 1895.

My Dear Mr. Glennan:

I congratulate you upon your magnificent "business edition" of THE VIRGINIAN of January 1st, telling of Norfolk's splendid exhibit for 1894, and of her wonderful resources and advantages, her remarkable growth and development, and her bright prospects for the future. I rejoiced very much at the recital and bid the grand City by the Sea "God speed." She ought to be the grand port of the Atlantic coast, and she will be. The tide is turning—the face of the people is towards the South. For investment, for manufacture, for trade, for comfort, for living, for conservatism, for freedom, for honor, for morals and for good government, everybody is looking to the South, and Virginia must lead, and Norfolk must be the fairest daughter of Virginia.

Very truly,
J. H. H. FIGGAT.

Rev. C. W. Clapham.

A highly esteemed clergyman of the M. E. church, pastor of the Church Creek circuit in Dorchester Co., Maryland, writes: "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"I feel it a duty to the public to send this certificate. I saw in a Philadelphia paper a letter from a man who had suffered from

Muscular Rheumatism and had been restored by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had the grip in the winter of '94 and '95 so severely that it deprived me of the use of my arms so that my wife had to dress and undress me, and when away from home I had to sleep in my clothes. I tried five doctors and not one accomplished anything. Then I saw the letter alluded to and determined to try Hood's. Before I had taken one bottle I had the use of my arms, thank God. These are facts and can be verified by many persons here. J. M. Colston, Church Creek, supplied me with Hood's. I am pastor of the M. E. church here." C. W. CLAPHAM, Church Creek, Maryland.

Letter from Mr. O. A. Wilson.
CHERRY P. O., NORFOLK CO., VA.,
April 11th, 1895.

Mr. Eliah Baker, Jr., Richmond, Va.
DEAR SIR:—Two years ago I was a great sufferer from indigestion and diarrhoea, and was cured by a physician to use Baker's Trembling Bitters, which I did, and the result was a complete cure. I am now suffering with the same trouble again. The druggists here don't keep your Bitters—please let me know what you will express me one dozen, or one half dozen bottles for.

Yours truly,
O. A. WILSON.

DOLLAR<sup>50</sup> DOLLAR!

There's not one cent's difference in the Value of a Gold Dollar and a dollar's Worth of Wearing Apparel at the Under Value Cut Rate Prices. Both are Full Face Values, and represent one hundred cents for a dollar. The Ten Dollar Men's Suits in the West Window are Marvelous Values, and the people are not slow in finding it out.

MONEY LOST!

The Lost Money is what you pay for goods that are cheaply made to sell cheap. More money is lost in the effort to economize in the buying of Shoddy, Cheap Stuffs than there is ever saved in the buying. For Three Dollars we offer a choice of Well-Made Men's Trousers, made by our own tailors, better made and far better at that, than any grade of Ready-Made Pants on the market ready to wear, and furthermore better fitting and decidedly better than goods of their class can be had anywhere else.

MONEY SAVED!

Common sense teaches that careful and judicious buying means money saved. The Suits for young men, now quoted at only Seven Dollars, in sizes 32, 33 and 34 inches, breast measure, are great money savers, and will prove a clear saving of from Three to Five Dollars on each and every one of them. They are positively good, honest, serviceable, slightly materials, well made and finished and unquestionably a money saving purchase to those they will fit, and decidedly the best values for the money we've ever offered.

MONEY MADE!

No dollar's worth can be worth more than the value of the dollar's worth placed in the Pants Department at the Undervalue scale of prices. Money made by saving never comes easier. The Men's Pants at only Five Dollars are Capital Fine Qualities, and represent all of the value in points of merit, beauty and service, fit included, that it is ever possible to crowd into a V.

MONEY FOUND!

The quality of the goods represents the moneyed value. Any article bought here contains full value of the price in quality. Linen Collars 5c. each or 50c. per dozen is certainly money found. Underwear Remnants, marked at only twenty-five cents, are just as staple for value as one quarter is worth another. Heavy Stuffs of every kind and character at heavy discount prices means money found. Children's Knee Pants at only twenty-five cents proves a clear finding of twenty-five cents on every pair. Size to age 15. They are neat looking and stout goods, and represent the money's worth for every penny charged.
